

CHRYSLER

Marc E. Schwartz - Biographical

- Born & raised in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and remains a Pittsburgh Steelers football fan.
- Worked in family business of Real Estate Management and Credit & Collections starting at age of 12 continuing part time in summers through and shortly after College.
- Graduated the University of Pittsburgh with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics and a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology.
- Spent over 10 years in Consulting industry with different companies and as an independent
- Moved to Michigan in 1994 to join Chrysler Corporation spending 14 years in manufacturing and marketing.
- Graduated Baker College in 1999 - Master of Business Administration Degree.
- Graduated Lawrence Technological University in 2005 - Master of Science in Operations Management degree.
- In 2006 began coursework toward a Doctorate of Business Administration degree. Coursework schedule completion December 2009. Dissertation in 2010. Expected Graduation May 2011.
- Enjoy outdoor activities; Avid Sports enthusiast; snow skiing, biking, camping, scuba diving, computing, exercise and general fitness activities.
- Volunteer in Junior Achievement teaching High School Economics since 1991 having developed my own curriculum associated with Junior Achievement.

Prepared By: Marc E. Schwartz

